Mrs. Chapman,

My dear Madam,

Most gratifully do I acknowledge, through your kindness, the reception of 'The Liberty Bell;' - a gem of physical, intellectual, moral, & true religious beauty & excellence.

While the thought & devotion that prompted the gift, fill me with grateful emmotions, its chiming will ever awaken responsive echoes within me, & serve to inorgonate & strengthen the fires of liberty & humanity enkendled upon the altar of my being.

I am truly your grateful & obliged friend

M. H. Walton
